On the Bio-Solutions Corp. Profile page there is a company description, CEO Description and a one on one Q&A session with Gilles regarding Bio-Solutions, its product line, and their target market. Bio's main goal is fighting, treating and preventing, areas afflicted by Malaria.

At Bio-Solutions Corp we market new and very effective FDA approved organic product to counter Malaria; our lead product is GREENEX™. Malaria is the forefront of priorities for the World Health Organization (WHO).

“GREENEX™ is an organic insecticide available in solid or liquid form, it neutralizes and eradicates up to 98% of the mosquito larvae, within a 24 hours period. Today, Malaria is the most dangerous disease transmitted by mosquitoes that we know of. Over 300 million people are infected by this disease and more than one million children under the age of five years die from Malaria each year” stated Dr Chaumillon.
